Just a heads up Tamra keeps telling Faimous that she feels like she is not in the know.
She keeps telling him that when she was president she would call all board members to keep them informed.

No es para hacer chisme just giving you a heads up.

Faimous is somewhat catering to her though cause he wants to keep her on the board. He says the only way he would stay on is if the same board continues. He's afraid of someone new coming in and not backing him up.
