Hi Tamara, thank you for letting me know.i had talked to Faimous about it and he told me that he thought is was fine for us to attend. Both Paula and I are committed to the panel presentation that we are having with ACT at the Conference. Paula's cost is paid by ACT as the President elect. I told Faimous the college does not have to pay for my flight or meals .. I'm willing to pay that cost. Only the conference fee and hotel. I know we are worried about public opinion but that is not going to change. The systemic issues the college is going through are the result of mismanagement that has been going on for far too long. I am glad that is being addressed. Our role as Trustees requires that we participate and advocate on behalf of the school.It is important for all of us to continue to participate and engage with all the stakeholders and be transparent with the community. Sorry for the long text. Feel free to call me. Hugs

I feel bad sometimes because i think she has good intentions but she goes around Paula who is the chair and i find it disrespectful. Y no va conmigo. Ella pudo consultation con Paula y luego nos pinemos de acuerdo . We can take turn attending conferences. Maybe 5 shouldn't go, but one or two to ensure we have representation from our college always.

Yo creo que eventualmente si esto continúa va afectar a los donantes y el enrollment. Pienso que hay que ir a la ofensiva y decir la verdad al público. Sentarse y conversar y quizás decir las personas que y a no están se han ido o han sido despedidas por razones que no podemos discutir. Sin embargo esta historia es pasado. Siempre buscamos a quien culpar cuando no tenemos toda la información. Hay reglas, costumbres y sistemas que son difíciles de cambiar. Los patrones establecidos en una cultura de falta de confianza no se desacen de la noche a la mañana. Y decimos algo así tendrá más impacto. La gente común no comprende decimos operaciones ni de presupuestos ni de obligaciones con convenio colectivo. Ellos sólo entienden , algo está mal y huele á rata.

It's hard for me to take these people serious when I'm watching families being ripped apart and the rise of facism, but then I think about how the college is a microcosm of the country. People are mad and scared about what's going on and they don't know how to channel that energy. I think coming after Faimous feels "safe" bc it's something they have control over.

But at the same time the shitty reporting has not helped. We need to put a statement out about the how pace survey was not all negative comments. That's all Dominick Bonney reported - it was about 1/3 negative, 1/3 positive and a 1/3 neutral. We cannot ignore this anymore

Make sure any statement we make states that we respects the right of everyone to express their opinion and exercise their first amendments right to complaint. We respectfully ask that people don't jump to conclusions with incomplete information and misinformation coming from a vocal minority with a personal agenda. Jennifer can make it pretty.

I think what would be more impactful now is to have a short and powerful message to be read at the bot meeting on why he's the right person for the needs of the college and he has ~~100~~ of the boards support. Then have PIO send out a press release that same day as a celebration of the contract renewal.
My thoughts.

I compare a lot of this stuff to what people tried to do to me when I was campaigning and what they wanted to see was a reaction. There was no way in hell was I going to allow myself to do that cause it would be a win for them. It's obviously not my livelihood so a bit different.

Its all noise. A statement at bot meeting, contract extension and a press release is going to send a stronger message.
